A colorful illustration for a film poster. At the top, a young boy with dark hair, wearing a red shirt and blue pants, sits on a thick red tree branch. Below him, a giant with a large yellow cape and a sword stuck in his back stands in a forest. To the right, another boy in a green and white striped shirt and blue pants runs towards the giant, holding a large map. The background features tall, stylized trees and a bright sky with falling leaves.
